VINCENT GRENIER
Films & Video 1978—2008

$7, $5, $4

For over three decades, media artist Vincent Grenier has made "witty, elegant experimental films and videos and his approach has always been defined by its eclecticism. Even those of us fiercely devoted to the field of experimental cinema know all too well that it can be rather humor-impaired," writes Michael Sicinski (GreenCine) "No surprise, then, that a stealth anarchist like Grenier is like a breath of fresh air." Grenier will present an evening of works ranging from his 1978 16mm film INTERIEUR INTERIORS (TO AK), TABULA RASA (1993-2004 16mm/video), and ARMOIRE (2007, Digital Video).

What's On The Wall?

Every month Hallwalls will exhibit video art on The Wall of our cinema vestibule. We are pleased to inaugurate this series with west-coast artist Joe Merrell's dérive, UNIVERSAL NOW (2007), a 3D video that takes viewers on a night-time promenade through what becomes an alien cityscape.
